

OAK HILL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH: ONLINE WORSHIP

November 15, 2020

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

10:30 a.m.

Gathering Music		Brian, Paul, and John
Welcome and Zoom Instructions		Rev. Erin Counihan
Prelude	My God Is So High	Susan Brown
Call to Worship	(Inspired by Psalm 123)	Donna Cook
One:	To you I lift up my eyes,
Many:	We look to you, O God.
One:	Notice us. Listen for us. Have mercy on us.
Many:	Our souls are heavy. Our spirits are weary.
One:	There is illness and struggle all around.
Many:	And so we look to you.
One:	There is violence and suffering all around.
Many:	And so we look to you.
One:	We are full of worry, anger, and fear. Your world is full of hate, greed, and evil.
Many:	And so we look to you.
One:	O God, won't you meet our gaze. Shower us in mercy and love. Grant us hope and courage. Remind us again of your goodness and promise.
Many:	Find us now and strengthen us for this ministry, for this building of community, for the renewing of our hearts.
One:	To you, we lift up our eyes.
Many:	We look to you, O God. Always and forever.
One:	Come, friends, let us worship our God.

O GOD, OUR HELP IN AGES PAST

ST. ANNE

1. O God, our Help in a - ges past, Our Hope for years to come,
2. Be - fore the hills in or - der stood, Or earth re - ceived her frame,
3. A thou - sand a - ges in thy sight Are like an eve - ning gone;
4. Time, like an ev - er - roll - ing stream, Soon bears us all a - way;
5. O God, our Help in a - ges past, Our Hope for years to come,

1. Our Shel - ter from the storm - y blast, And our e - ter - nal Home.
2. From ev - er - last - ing thou art God, To end - less years the same.
3. Short as the watch that ends the night Be - fore the ris - ing sun.
4. We fly for - got - ten, as a dream Dies at the o - p'ning day.
5. Be thou our Guard while life shall last, And our e - ter - nal Home.

Text: CM; Psalm 90, adapted by Isaac Watts, 1674-1748. Music: William Croft, 1678-1727.

About Rev. Max Hill (they/them)

Max serves as Pastor for UKirk St. Louis, a Presbyterian Campus ministry with students from WashU and SLU. Max is passionate about relationships, community building, & the intersection of faith & identity. They have recently served as a Student Pastor for Princeton Presbyterians, a campus ministry to the Princeton area. They have previously served as Student Minister for Contextual Exploration, Community Engagement, and LGBTQ Belonging at Maryland Presbyterian Church in the Baltimore, a Student Pastor for LGBTQ Fellowship at Broad Street Ministry in Philadelphia and Brick Presbyterian Church in the City of New York. Before that Max was a grant writer and New Worshiping Community founder/facilitator with United Campus Ministry at the University of Arkansas. Max completed their Masters of Divinity at Princeton Theological Seminary in May 2019. They are fascinated by the creativity and diversity of God's people and are eager to meet students, gather for worship and dinner, and to discuss the impact of faith on identity. They are excited to serve as a Pastor in the Giddings-Lovejoy Presbytery and Campus Minister for UKirk St. Louis.

About Lindsey Warford Cummins

Lindsey is a professional harpist and violist based in New York City where she has also served as an administrator for Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts and The New York Pops orchestra. She began her studies at a young age in Kentucky and holds a Bachelor's of Music in Harp Performance from the University of North Florida and Master's of Arts Administration from Florida State University. She's worked in therapeutic hospital settings, and entertained a wide range of audiences as a solo harpist and with various ensembles including community orchestras, choirs, churches, and school assemblies. Lindsey's musical career has been inspired by the talents of her family members, including her aunt Susan Brown, Oak Hill Presbyterian Church's famed Music Minister.
