Call to Worship (Adapted from Psalm 51:1-12)

Dena Roper

One: God of Grace, God of Love, be with us as we gather.

Many: Have mercy on me, O God, according to your steadfast love,

One: Blot out my transgressions and cleanse me from my sin.

Many: Teach me wisdom in my secret heart.

One: As you know my pain and worry, let me know your joy and gladness.

Many: Let the bones that have been crushed rejoice.

One: Create in me a clean heart, O God,

Many: And put a new and right spirit within me.

One: By your love, sustain in me a willing spirit.

Many: By your story, help me to know your way.

One: Holy God, find us gathered here in your presence, and fill us with your grace.

Many: Holy God, find us gathered here in your presence, and fill us with your love.

One: Come friends, let us worship our God!

This stirring hymn used at the opening of Riverside Church in New York in 1930 was penned by its widely-known and influential pastor, and it has gained a firm place in English-language hymnals around the world. The Welsh tune name honors the Rhondda Valley in Glamorganshire.
