

OAK HILL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH: ONLINE WORSHIP

November 1, 2020

All Saints Day

10:30 a.m.

Gathering Music		Brian, Paul, and John
Welcome and Zoom Instructions		Rev. Erin Counihan
Prelude	Praise Him! Praise Him!	Susan Brown
Call to Worship	(Adapted from Psalm 34)	Sheryl Ream
One:	I will bless the Lord at all times!
Many:	My soul finds its home, its help, its song in our God.
One:	I will praise the Lord at all times!
Many:	I will praise God with my work, with my witness, and with my worship.
One:	For our God is the one who creates and saves, our God is the one who seeks and redeems, our God is the one who listens for us and takes action to help.
Many:	O taste and see that the Lord is good.
One:	Happy are those who take refuge in God.
Many:	Happy are those who put hope in God.
One:	Happy are those who seek the wisdom of God.
Many:	Happy are those who labor in the love of God.
One:	I will bless the Lord at all times!
Many:	Come, let us worship our God!

For All the Saints

1 For all the saints who from their labors rest, who
 2 Thou wast their rock, their fortress, and their might;
 3 O blest communion, fellowship divine!
 4 And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
 5 From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast, through thee by faith before the world confessed, thy thou, Lord, their captain in the well-fought fight;

 We feebly struggle; they in glory shine; yet steals on the earth the distant triumph song, and gates of pearl streams in the countless host,

name, O Jesus, be forever blest.
 thou, in the darkness drear, their one true light.
 all are one in thee, for all are thine.
 hearts are brave again, and arms are strong.
 singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,

Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia!

The broad and sweeping tune with which this hymn is so closely identified was created to be sung during a reverent but dramatic procession at the beginning of an All Saints' Day service, an enacted representation of the enduring "fellowship divine" celebrated by this text.

TEXT: William Walsham How, 1864
 MUSIC: Ralph Vaughan Williams, 1906
