Call to Worship

Dena Roper

One Grace and peace to you from the One who is,

Many: Who always was, and who is still to come—the Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end.

One: This is our God—

Many: The One who loves us, and who gave himself for us; who gathers us together in this place, and bids us seek his face.

One: Let's worship God together!

Song

O Lord, You Are My God and King

Call to Confession

Rev. Dr. Alan Meyers

Prayer of Confession (Lectionary Liturgies, Thom Shum)

Oak Hill Community

The choices we make, Mighty God, reveal who we are. Choosing the lies of the world, your Word has not been on our lips. Choosing independent and isolated lives, we do not reflect your Spirit in our actions towards others. Choosing to exalt the powerful of our day, we are unable to follow the One whose weakness gives us life. Forgive us, God who became weak for our sake. Do not turn your face from us but help us to face ourselves honestly. Free us from our captivity, so we may faithfully follow Jesus Christ, our King, our Lord, our Savior.

(Time for silent confession.)

Assurance of Pardon

Shout for joy, children of God! The God who was and is and is to come loves you, forgives you, and renews you.

Rev. Dr. Alan Meyers

God's Spirit rests upon us, grace and peace are the gifts of our loving God. Amen

The Lord's Prayer

Oak Hill Community

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.
