Call to Worship (Psalm 150)

Don Stanford

One: Praise the Lord!

Many: Praise God in God's sanctuary.

One: Praise God in all his mighty firmament.

Praise God for all her mighty deeds.

Praise God according to their surpassing greatness!

Many: Praise God with trumpet sound.

One: Praise God with instruments and noise.

Many: Praise God with tambourine and dance.

One: Praise God with strings and pipe.

Many: Praise God with loud clashing cymbals!

One: Let everything that breathes praise the Lord!

Many: Let us now praise our God!

Call to Confession

Rev. Erin Counihan

Prayer of Confession

Oak Hill Community

Holy God, thank you for hearing our prayers. Our hearts long to sing your praises and to shout confidently that in this very room and in all of your creation, there is indeed enough love, hope, power, and joy, but too often we forget that. We confess that we have allowed ourselves live as if there is not enough, as if we must compete, as if we must take and hold whatever we can. We don't share, we don't forgive, and we don't trust. Forgive us our greed. Forgive us our doubt. Forgive us our neglect. And remind us that your love, your justice, and your hope are abundantly available. Forgive us and renew our hearts with your strength, your generosity, and your faith. Forgive us and teach us to sing again of the love you are still sharing with all the world. In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

(Time for silent confession.)

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.
